Branch: Glasgow and West of Scotland

Band: GSPC Milngavie

Discipline: Drummer

About me:

I started piping in my early twenties and was taught by the late Jimmy McLeod, father of Kenny at McCallum Bagpipes, and also learned piobaireachd from the late Tommy Pearston, one of the founder members of The College of Piping and joint author of The Tutor Book series. I would like to say I enjoyed Piobaireachd, but would be "lying through my teeth"!!!

Started off in 231st Boys Brigade Company, played for a few years in Linwood, grade 3A with Sam Black as PM, moved to Milngavie Pipe Band and have been there ever since.
