Member Details – Tony Doherty

Branch: London and South of England

Band: University of Bedfordshire

Discipline: Piper

About me:

Current Pipe Major of University of Bedfordshire Grade 2 and Grade 4 Band.

Taught to play by a school teacher in Luton and joined Luton Pipe Band at the age of 14. Encouraged by my father, who as a youngster played for St Francis Pipe Band, Glasgow before the 2nd World War. From 1993 to 1998 played under Dixie Ingram with Scots Guards Association Pipe Band. Returned to Luton in 1998 to play for University of Luton Pipe Band and have remained there since.

Highlights have been helping achieve Grade 2 status for the University of Luton/Bedfordshire Pipe Band and winning a World title as Pipe Major of the Grade 4B band in 2007.

Passed RSPBA Elementary examination many years ago and now happily being pushed to study for higher examinations under the PDQB.
